“ some days you are not sure how you got thru the day... A couple of days ago I received a call I had expected but treaded. A woman who was my cousin but who had always felt more like a big sister to me had died. She was the oldest child of my Mothers sister. All of our parents are gone and the cousins are the "older" generation now. Jeraldine as we all called her was beautiful to me. I was the preteen and teenage tag along that she would allow in her bedroom as she did her high and hair-sprayed hairdo of the 60s. I remember laying on her bed looking at her in awe of how she made her beautiful hair turn out so perfect. She tried several times to make my "straight as a stick" hairdo into something but even with a lot of hairspray it eventually went straight again. She was always kind with all my many questions and she had a smile that would light up any room she was in. She eventually fell in love with a Marine who was a friend of her brothers. Of course, since she loved him I did too. I would always tease her that I was going to steal him from her someday. He would laugh and say there was only one sweetheart for him and Jeraldine was it. The world is a sadder place now that her light is gone, but she would be sad if we all didn't keep shinning our own light. She was the perfect example of how to live your life with joy. Her cup was always half full and most of the time running over. I shall miss her terribly but she is in a beautiful place now and with the family, we have lost in the past. She is especially with her Mama who she has missed for many years, as have I. I will always miss you my sweet Jeraldine and I am so grateful you were part of my life.

“ Sonny, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I learned about this through Patsy and I'm so sorry for your loss but I know God's peace and love will surround you all and you are comforted in knowing she is in her heavenly home and no longer suffering.

“ Dear Jacqueline, We were so sorry to learn your sweet mother had past away. We know though that as she drew her last breath here on earth, her next breath was in heaven. We haven't seen your family in a long time, but still love you all. I can't picture your Mama without a smile on her face. We pray God will flood your mind with sweet memories of your Mama just when you miss her most. I know she has your little girls, one in each arm, loving them. May God bless you, your Daddy and the rest of your dear family. Nancy Entrekin McConnell and Janie Entrekin and families

“ Sonny, Jacquelyn, and Jack, I am so sorry about Jeraldine. Our families spent many wonderful memorable times together, over many years. No more suffering for her now, she is in The Arms of Jesus, walking The Streets of Gold with Gary, Jimmy, Mildred and Clarence! The O'Steens, (myself, Gail, and Laura), will be Praying for You All. We Love You!

The Moore/ Padgett family has a special place in my heart!! I know it's hard on y'all but she's where we all want to be!! No more suffering, she has that big smile that we were all use to seeing as she walking the streets of gold and being with Jesus, family,and friends.
