“ *Dear Family:
I want you to know that I'm praying for you. By His testimony & witness we know that Brother Aaron is in the presence of the Lord. I know the moment he entered into the glory of Heaven there was a great reunion of all the Darby's & Family who has gone on to Heaven. I am proud to say that Aaron was my friend. He always treated me with respect & like I was family. I loved talking with him and we did many times because he always got around talking to me about the Lord. I love you as a family and be assured that you will see him again - if you know Jesus Christ as your Savior & Lord as Aaron did. I look forward to seeing Him again & I believe it will be in the near future.*

“ Aaron was a giving and loving man. He was a special person in our family and was always willing to help others. My deepest sympathy to Mary and Phil. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that Aaron is in the arms of God now. We will all miss him so very much.

*With much sympathy,
