“ Such fond memories of fun times at my Aunt Adell. I loved going to her home as a child and spending time with my cousins. Aunt Adell was a happy, fun-loving lady , and she always made me feel special. Glad to know she is with my Daddy (who loved her so much) and all her other family members in heaven.

“ I love Aunt Adell. She was a lovely kind soul. I remember that she was very pleasant to me when I was a child. I used to love to sit and talk with her. She could tell the funniest stories. I loved her laughter and the peacefulness in her charming character. I will miss her but know that she be happy with her loved ones in Heaven. I pray for Linda, Joyce, Dee and their families in this trying time. Michael and Lois Robertson Florida
