“ Dear Robin,

My thoughts and prayers are with you now. I remember you telling me about your daughter Aja, several years ago in New Orleans. I wish I had known her. Someday soon, I would like to see you and hear more about her. When I lost my soulmate about 4 years ago, my grief was unbearable. Someone told me to let go of my beloved's hand and hold God's. I felt the connection and the love. I will be thinking about you, Love ,Linda###imported-begin###Linda Haycraft###imported-end##

“ Hey, this is Erin's mom. Aja was a wonderful woman and a great friend to Erin. She was very caring and shared her life with Erin. I am so very sorry for your loss, I understand the hurt and sorrow of losing a child. Aja will be missed. Thank you for allowing Erin to help you all during this time. It will help her begin healing. She is taking this very hard because of what happened to our family and our continued struggle to cope. If there is anything I can do to help, please let me know. Again, my family is very sorry for your loss. God Bless.##imported-begin##randi gross##imported-end##
