“ I just learned of Alma Jean’s death today. She was such a loving lady and always so friendly and kind to me. I know you all must feel a big empty spot in your hearts. I feel blessed that I got to see her at the hospital when Merle had his back surgery. It had been many years since we had seen each other. I remember visiting in her home when I was younger. She made me feel welcome like I was right at home. Please know that I will pray that God will heal your pain and comfort you all in the days ahead.

“ Oh my sweet friend. We walked together at high school graduation because we were both sooo tall. You were always my dear friend. The last reunion we sat on Gail’s porch and talked of being with Jesus one day. Your race is over, but we will see each other again. Love Paula Ruth Fowler Sartain. Class of 1960. 🏡
