“ Although I did not see Lee much over the recent years, I thought about him often. I spent a lot of time with him when I was young. He was family to me and taught me a lot.....about cabinet making and more importantly about being a good honest man. I have lots of great memories with him....sanding cabinets, riding in truck, installing cabinets, getting a dope(Coke) and snack at Ruths, talking with Slim Batson. Lee was a great friend and father like to me.

We are both so sorry to hear of Lee's homegoing. We sure loved him. He put his heart in our home - we are looking at his handi work right now - the beautiful fireplace mantel and the beautiful full wall cabinets. He was such a sweet friend and so happy to have known him. He blessed us with his spiritual wisdom and friendship. Don & Susan Sunday
