“ Larry - We are sending our love and prayers to the family, but the comfort is knowing that Amy's is in the "presence" of her Lord and Saviour. May "His" grace and glory abide with you through this transition which is our loss but her gain. Just knowing she will be there when you arrive will make it easier to go "Home". We love you'll much. Let's be thankful for the assurance of "His" Amazing Grace and until we hear WELL DONE we must keep traveling our journey until we reach our destiny - "HOME"##imported-begin##Tony and Debra Goodwin##imported-end##

“ Amy Center... I will miss you sweet friend. You and Larry are and will always be precious to my heart. Though we didn't see each other often, when we did, it was like we had just saw one another five minutes before. I will forever remember the opportunity that you and Larry gave me to be a part of your wedding day. Your love for each other was that of story book per-portion. I remember when I got married and I saw you.. you said,(shaking your head)"not even an invitation"... Then I explained that Jessica and I eloped... You then said,"SHUT UP... you always made me laugh. Your kindness, love, and joy was infectious to those around you. You my sweet friend embodied the fruits of the spirit! I am sure you heard the Lord say...Well done! My thoughts, prayers, and love are with you Larry and family.##imported-begin##Rev. Eric R. Medford##imported-end##
