“ What can I say about Uncle Z. He was set in his ways but had a big heart. . HE was funny but really didn't mean to be. Had the sweetest smile. Smart and from the old school very wise man .We dearly loved him and are so very thankful that he is not any any more pain.He is with Jesus and has so much joy.We will see him again one day.We Love you uncle Z.. We will miss you and remember all the sweet memories we have and hold them close to our hearts. Rip.We will see you later this is not good bye.

Uncle AZ was a loving kind hearted man...But he was also a hard working man. I will miss seeing his garden grow...He would stop me some Sundays coming from church to give me and Jade peaches...Or he would be standing on the road at his garden just to see who would stop and talk to him. I will miss him come spring... love you Uncle Z
