“ Ms. Ann was one of the sweetest women I've ever known. She loved the Lord so much and you could see it in her life. It's been many years since I went to church with her but I remember her well. She loved to sing for the Lord. I know she will be missed by so many and especially her family. Ya'll will be in my prayers.

“ She was an amazing lady and the sweetest person I've ever known. She cared about everyone and she was a prayer warrior. She had a huge heart and made everyone around her smile and laugh. She was silly and fun. Her family meant the world to her and she was the best mother, grandmother, sister, and friend you could ever ask for. She spread the ministry her whole life and there is no telling many people she helped on their journey with God. Everyone knew her and she will greatly missed by all.
