“ Arnette Howell was my aunt and I thought she was very special and she was a fine lady, I will miss our talks on the phone and our visits when I could get to Travelers Rest to visit with her and John. I have many memories of her and John but the one that stays with me the most is the time when I was in the emergency room with my daddy, Coly Howell, John's brother and I thought that daddy was dying because he wasn't breathing and all of a sudden I look up and standing at his bedside was John and Arnette and immediately John began to pray over my daddy. I was so alone and afraid and then they were right there and this can only be a God send because I do not know how they knew about daddy at that moment because I had not had the time to call anyone in the family, but there they were. There are so many stories, I wish I had written them down so I could share more about this fine lady, I will miss her, she is the last one to go of that era and I know those that watched over her so carefully will miss her too. I love you Aunt Arnette and I know you are rejoicing with John and the family now. God bless you.
