“ I will remember Art as the humble, grateful, gentle soul he was. I had the honor and privilege to spend time with him the weekend before and even through his discomfort, he was smiling and cheery and happy to be alive. We spoke about a lot of things - his family in Florida was on his mind. He was a friend to everyone here at Inontime. Art brought his smile and appetite whenever he walked through the door. You are missed, Art. There is a hole where you used to be. May the song of the angels bring you comfort and sing you to sleep, my friend.
