I am so sorry that I never responded and said thank you. That whole time period was such a mental insanity. I do appreciate the thoughts and gift.

I just seen this, I can't even imagine the pain you and your family have went through. I pray for you all daily. Ashley was my best friend, I loved that girl so much and I miss her more and more everyday. She was like no other. She had a heart of gold and no matter what she always loved. She was so smart and she was my accountability friend and she was what kept me together. Every since her death, I have so many questions had I would just like to talk to y'all if you don't mind so please get in touch with me anytime you feel up to it. I didn't want to disturb y'all in the process of y'all grieving because I know what I've went through and I can't even imagine what y'all have. I love y'all very much and I'm praying for y'all and I'm so sorry we lost her. She was one of a kind and she will never be forgotten. She was my absolute best friend, my rock and it really is hard not having her here.
