“ Johnny, Rhonda and family,

Audrey was next door to us for 12 years but was so much more than a neighbor to us. She was a bonus Grandmother to both Justin and me, and later Austin’s “Meme Awe”. We always enjoyed talking, laughing and joking around with her. Her lively sprit and spunky nature was so refreshing to be around. Over the years we shared flowers, advice, scripture, occasional meals and she even taught me to make her pickles! That was such a fun day. I also knew exactly where our dog was if she came up “missing”- getting treats from Audrey in the den. We will always cherish those good memories.

I can’t begin to describe how much she will be missed but we will rejoice KNOWING that she is now in Heaven with her Lord and Savior. Continued love and prayers for you all over the coming months.

*Sincerely,
Kathryn Toole*
