“ Avery was a great cousin & he will be greatly missed. I know you're hurting unbearably now, but God will console you & provide the solace you need. It's just a temporary parting...We shall all be united together one glorious day never again to part. We love you. We have been & will continue praying for you.

PS

“ I so wanted to be there today, and to bring Mom with me. She had hoped to see Avery on Wednesday when she visited South Carolina for the day. We talked this morning that our memory of him is sitting under the shade tree with Dad on Florence Street when he would come by and drink a pot of coffee with Dad. They spent a lot of time under that old tree, solving all the issues of the day, and reminiscing about life in Pickens. I appreciate all the time that Avery gave to Dad because Dad would always light up when Avery pulled in the driveway - his coffee-drinking buddy. To share what John Robert said today: A long time ago, when Avery was two years old, he came to the screen door in Florida, sweat streaking his little face, and asked my Mom multiple times, "Is supper ready?" And because Avery was ready to meet Jesus, the answer is, "Yes.....it is." In the last words of the late Stonewall Jackson, "Let us cross over the river, and rest under the shade of the trees." May Avery forever rest in peace.

“ Cousin Avery has always been very special to me. I remember looking up to him since I was a child. I loved to go talk to him on the hill next to the street in front of Grandma Lyda's home. He was always one of the most gentle, humble, and sweetest person. I will miss him so much. I pray for knowing that we will see him in Heaven again one day.
