Lord, You gathered Barbara into Your Loving arms...
And soothed her pain away...
She's resting in Your Precious Grace,
Restored in Your Love today.

A graduate from Thomas Jefferson High,
Daughter to Betty and Bill,
Barbara loved her handiwork
And her “soaps” gave her such a thrill!

Although they'll miss her company
At the Westside Center and Belaire Place,
She's dancing in Your Kingdom, God,
With a smile upon her face!

Written By, Jane Johnson in honor of Barbara.

“ Dear Claudia and Skip,
Thank you for all that you have done. You guys are always in my prayers. I remember going to see Barbara when she lived in Dallas. I was going into the sixth grade. She took me to see "True Grit". She watched over me like a mother hen. We had a great time. I remember she was very afraid of storms. There was a bathroom in the center of the home in Travelers Rest with no windows. I had taken my mom to visit. Barbara stayed in the bathroom almost the whole time we were there because it was thindering and lightening. I miss them all so much. I know I will get to see them again. It will be a great day!
Love to you all.
