“ *I don't really know what to say except that Tillman and Ladema were two very wonderful people & treated Fran and I like we were their own children.
Rest in peace mom and pop you may be gone but you'll never be forgotten.*

“ Always teasing and telling stories of the past. I admired Tillman. Know he missed LaDema deeply. So with that I post this poem I found on the web.

MY BRIDE

*When I had you I was afraid to die
Now that you're gone, death is my friend; he is by my side
If he takes me today I will go with a smile
Let others cope and heal for awhile
Selfish? Why yes I am that for sure
They are stronger than I, and this pain I can not endure
So death take me today, next month or year
Death I am ready, and you I do not fear*

Hand in hand always together.
