“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
The power of prayer is a mystery as it is a gift to both give and receive.
May you all be lifted up on wings of an Angle to wrap around you and carry you though this time. May peace fill your hearts, minds, and souls.

“ Josh and Kristin and Family,

We cannot imagine what you must be feeling during this painful loss. However, we are thinking of you all constantly and sending many, many hugs your way each passing moment. Just remember, each minute that passes that you miss both of them is another moment they are making a place for you to join them again one day and rejoicing being together again. Take some time to know you will walk among Angels one day.

Love,
Matt, Shannon, Madison, and Rylee Reynolds

“ Josh, Many thoughts and prayers are being sent out for you and your family. We don't understand why things happen the way they do, but with time you will see the will of God. Hang in there and know that you are not alone. Many people are lifting you up in prayer! I pray with time the good memories will fill the sadness and your heart will shine. We love you!

“ Dear Family,

Joe and I are very old friends of Berry. Joe grew up in the same neighborhood, went to Parker High School and was very close friends with Berry when they were teenagers. We are truly saddened for you and feel the loss as well. We pray you feel the presence of the Lord around you during this very difficult time.

Love in Christ,
