“ My husband and I visited Betty this fall. (Resher Gibson and I visited her later.) She was in our deacon care group. She was a sweet and loving person. She remembered and talked about Mary Bennefield who had taken her to church at White Oak Baptist. She also talked about her children being good to her though I don't know if I ever got your names. I read to her out of her Bible. She liked the healthy cookies I brought her and especially bright flowers. We sorrow with you but not without hope! We will see Betty again! Please accept our condolences. Michael and Carol Gray
