“ I am very sorry to hear about my Aunt Betty's passing. She fought this terrible disease called cancer a long time. But God was ready to call her home and is now cancer free. She will always be remembered for her smile and beautiful yard. She kept that yard beautiful even through her sickness. I know the family is hurting right now. Just think of all the good memories of the time you had with your mother. Also keep your faith in God and he will see you through this. There will be hard times ahead but just think of the good memories and they will have you smiling.
