“ Anita, Keith, Dylan, Kaelyn, Joyce, Joey, & Tori, I have no words to express how sorry I am that you have to suffer yet another great loss. There is nothing I can say to ease the pain that I know you and your family are feeling. The Lord took our 21 yr old son home 14 years ago. We should never have to bury our children. It's not natural. The most comforting thing I can say is that God's plan is perfect even when we don't understand it or see it. We put our trust in Him to get us through and to cover us with his comfort, strength, and love. We live by faith and find comfort in God's promise of seeing BJ again one day. Until then, we anticipate that day and live for the Lord. I know BJ is having a great time with his grandfather, and his baby brothers. You've gained another guardian angel here on this earth. Your family has been through more than their share it seems but what a powerful testimony y'all have been for our Lord and Savior. I love your family and I'm praying for you all.

“ *Dear Keith, Anita, Dylan, Kaelyn and Simpson Family. There are no words to express the sorrow I feel in my heart over the loss of BJ. He was an amazing young man. He had such a impact on my family from the time he was a little boy, I will always be forever grateful to him for his friendship he had with my family(Ric, Josh and myself). You will always be a part of our lives and will live in our hearts forever. I know that Ric welcomed you into heaven with open arms December 31, 2018. I'm sure he said, "Lets go get that field ready to play ball on". Keith, Anita and Simpson family please know that you all are in my prayers daily. *Anita, Keith , family and Ms Joyce, Tori and Joey/family.
Upon reading the many articles of the great victory for Clemson I came across an article asking for prayers for the loss of Joey Batson's nephew.*

It's been since 2001 since we have seen one another .

We remember so well the fond memories and often talk about them of your entire family meeting each year during July 4 as we all returned to the same hotel and enjoyed a wonderful week catching up together.

*We remember BJ so well. So energetic, so full of life, no fear, always polite and always ready to be on the go with his favorite baseball cap!
As we found the article that identified it was BJ who passed away we were in complete shock and our hearts are broken for you .*

We are so sorry that you and your families are having to walk through this journey .

We cannot say we understand the pain your hearts are feeling however we can say that our prayers for you will be that you will find comfort in knowing our Heavenly Father will never leave your side.

Remembering your family always being close and very supportive this too will bring great comfort.

The many memories you have of BJ so full of life are true blessings that will carry you on. To read how he touched so many people's heart at such a young age is incredible and will not be forgotten.

Praying for comfort and healing .
