“ My thoughts and prayers are with your family. One of my fondest memories of Bobby was back sometime in the 1970's. Someone asked Bobby to do a talk on Wednesday Night. He stood up, and for 30 mins a wonderful bible lesson rolled from his lips. He talked from the heart, made some excellent points, Quoted scripture after scripture and the thing that amazed me so much was..... he didn't use the first note, it was all from memory. This morning as I was preparing to teach my Sunday School class I realized..... The podium I was about to speak from was built by Bobby. A great carpenter, faithful Christian, and a good friend. May God wrap his loving arms around you as you go through this time of sorrow.
