“ Mom, there are so many great memories to share that I can't pick just one. I'm thankful that we had such a close relationship my whole life, and that we could always count on each other during the hard times and enjoy each other during the good times. Your physical presence will be missed terribly, but I know that you are with God and simply waiting on your loved ones who are still here to reunite with you in eternal happiness. I'll always love you.

“ Joyce will be so missed, but we will be together again very soon. She is more than a sister from another mother. She is a sister from one heart to another. We have shared so much of life together. The laughter, the meals together, and raising our children together. The memories that will sustain us until Jesus comes to call us together again. Prayers for the family to help them through this time of grief will be gratefully appreciated.
