“ Brenda was my studio mate at Clemson, and we shared many good times in the years after we graduated, supporting each other through rough times and celebrating successes and joys. We could go months without talking and then spend hours on the phone. I’m so sorry that we allowed too many months to pass. I’ll miss her dearly.

“ Brenda came into our lives at church when she began attending with her son. She helped teach our Sunday School class and was willing to help in many ways. I will cherish the time we had with her as she became a special friend. Rest in peace Brenda, you have earned your rewards.
