“ We recently spent the day with Butch at the Furman U Scottish festival. He and his cousin Phillip made plans to fish together and work on his new corvette. He was bubbly and happy. He joined the McDonald Scottish Society which is his heritage. His loss is a shock. We had so many plans for the future. I wish his family comfort, they are wonderful people. They have been a family to Phillip, Erika and I who have no close family. We appreciate them. Butch will be greatly missed.
