“ I knew Carolyn from my 20 year employment with Cone Mills Union Bleachery Plant. What a special lady she was. I always enjoyed my conversations with her. What I'll never forget is how she would cook a mess of Poke Salad each spring and bring me some. It was just like manna from Heaven and always tasted super.
She and Boyce were always such good people and I'm so sorry to have learned of her passing. May God bless the entire family.
