“ I had the pleasure of meeting Charles at Hardee's in TR. Shortly afterwards I adopted him as my dad and gave him the name King Charles. I enjoyed attending church service with him at New Liberty Baptist church, visiting him at his home and even hospital visits, our lunch dates to Golden Corral in Easley but most of all that precious smile he would give. He will truly truly truly be MISSED!!! I thank God for the time He gave me. Love ❤️ you King Charles

“ Charlie was such a nice man. I remember him from my years at Bakers Pharmacy. He and co-workers would come by for their afternoon pick up. Coffee and a little Debbie cake. I know his family will miss him terribly. You all are in my prayers.
