“ My heart is so sad from hearing of your great loss. Charles has been a dear friend for over 40 years from his Computer Services days in the Daniel Building, to my mechanic the whole time he was in that business and of course his famous BBQ. Jack and I were honored to call him friend as well as you, Ann, and your precious family. He will be greatly missed. Ann, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. With much love, Carol

“ Charles was the one man man dad trusted to work on his teenage son's car. He was fair and kind every single time I went to his shop. He was a master at what he did. I often stood in awe of how much he knew about cars. Apparently he knew much more than that. Charles was part of the magic of growing up in Locust Hill.
