“ I knew Cheryl when we where in High School, I know at that time she was a person I could call a friend. I know that it will be a void in life without her here and my condolences and prayers go out to all the family members I know she was a light of hope and always had a smile to share with others. She will also be missed by many of the Erwin High School Alumni.###imported-begin###Harley Haug###imported-end###

“ I lost my father in September. I did not know your daughter, but her obituary moved me, as my brother is in a mental institution, I understand that environment somewhat, and I think of all the decent people whose lives have made all the rest able to do what they have been called to do.
