“ So thankful for Chrissy's cheerful spirit in high school! The last time I saw her I remember noticing how interested she was in my life and family even though she had a lot on her plate. She didn't complain, only shared what was going on when I asked. She truly loved and cared for others. I am praying for you all.

“ I met Chrissy many years ago after my divorce when I was forced to buy a house. I met her during that process. She was so sweet and my heart would break watching her go through that horrible disease. God had other plans for her. So sad to hear she is gone but know she's in Jesus' arms now. Praying for her family and all the friends she has left behind. Such a sweet person. I love you Chrissy!!!

“ Larry, Scooter and loved ones,

We know that both of you are hurting deeply. Nothing we have to offer at this time can truly comfort you. You are now in a deep and dark forest and there seems to be no way of escape, however, along the way you both will encounter His grace. He, in time, will lead you out of the dreadful forest. And remember- to have loved much is to grieve much. Most definitely we are lifting you both up in prayer. Our heavenly Father will sustain you. Much love, Michael and Melanie

Makes me reflect how fast time goes by, Chrissy born in December and Josh in January . 38Years young but so blessed to know Chrissy and see her joy in living , not fearing death and knowing the Lord ordered her steps each day . So many of us should learn by her example to hold on to everyday and it's opportunities to witness to others not only by words but a life well lived . Love to you Larry and Gaye and family Noah and Cathy

My sincere condolences to Chrissy's family and friends. Chrissy sold me my home here in Greenville. She made such and impact on me the short time we worked together. She touched so many lives. We all should take a look at ourselves and remember Chrissy and then remember to smile more often and appreciate everything! God bless you all today and always.
