“ Dear Priscilla, I am so sorry to hear the news. Although not unexpected, it's always a shock. I remember growing up with Chris and his brothers - they lived on the "other side of the hill" I think Chris called it. He was such a fun-loving guy and I can only imagine the wonderful 52 years you had together. It's hard to imagine how fast the years have gone by. It seems like only yesterday we were all young with our whole lives ahead of us. You and the whole family are in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless you all. Margaret Burgess Snyder.
