“ It was a great privilege to have had Clay in my life. I will always be forever grateful for his friendship and help during our years of working together at Steel Heddle. Clay talked about and loved each of you as family greatly and it was always on his mind. The world is a better place because of Clay. My prayers and condolences are with you.##imported-begin##James R (Jim) Bomar##imported-end##

“ Peggy, Michael & Angie & boys, My heart was so saddened to hear of the passing of Clay. I know God makes no mistakes but losing your loved ones is the worst road you have go on. God will be there for you I know and all the prayers & love will get all of you through this difficult time. He will dry your tears and heal this hurt in time. Clay will be missed but remember the good memories of him , that's what gets me through everyday. Love in Christ, Peggy Williams & family##imported-begin##peggy williams##imported-end##

“ Dear Peggy:
I was shocked beyond belief when I got the news. It just does not seem real. My heart goes out to you, and family, especially little Griffen. To lose his father at such a young age is traumatic. I love you all and you are deep in my heart and thoughts. Love,

“ I was truly saddened this morning to find out about Clay's death. I was coming by and checking on him after i found out he was sick and in the hospital but im very ashamed to say i have not made the time to do so in the last couple of months and now feel like i let him down. Clay was a special friend that i will think of often and think of better days. I'm so very sad for your loss###imported-begin###Rusty Reid###imported-end###
