“ What a beautiful lady! Cleta always had such a lovely smile , was always beautifully dressed and made everyone feel loved. It was a pleasure to be in her presence because she had a bright, positive outlook, although I know she missed George so much. I lost my husband, Malcolm, this year, and he and George always teased each other and we had love and great respect for both Cleta and George. We have missed her at Reedy River Baptist Church since she moved away but enjoyed the telephone conversations we had together.

I send my sincere sympathy to the family.
