“ Love and prayers go to you, Amy and Barry. Even though there were many years that we did not have a close relationship with my brother Clyde, he and Sandra were always loved by our family. We are so thankful that they joined the rest of the family for Christmas last year, and will always share the memory of what a great time we had. We were looking forward to the family gathering again this year, and they will truly be missed. But we rest assured that we will see Clyde, Sandra and mother and daddy when we join them in heaven some day. I am sure they are happy together today!
