“ Dear Family,
You probably don't connect my name but I am the grandson of John Lewis Baker, Aunt Cora's brother-in-law. It was always a treat to see her at the family reunions. Just looking at her brought back rich memories of Uncle Curt and my grandfather. I will miss her, celebrate her home going, and remember her as another reminder of the heritage and blessing to be part of a wonderful family. I am sorry not to be able to be there in person, but I could not get away from Birmingham. I hope to see some of you at the singing in Sept. Wally##imported-begin##Wally Davenport##imported-end##
