“ I had the pleasure of teaching Cory in 5th grade. He was a kind and respectful young man. He was the type of student every teacher dreamed to have in class.

My heart was broken when I heard the sad news of Cory's passing. I still pictured him in 5th grade with his pleasant disposition.

I know this is a sad time for his family. I am thankful for our promise of seeing him again in Heaven because Cory knew Jesus.

May our dear Savior carry you through these difficult days.

John 11:25-26

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

“ We were shocked to hear the news of Cory passing.

He was every good thing that people have already shared about his life.

Personally, I loved sharing a few Clemson football tickets with Cory, as he seemed so genuinely excited and appreciative.

Cathy and I just learned of his death yesterday, and were so saddened to hear of him leaving us.

This seems to support the words in the Billy Joel song of “only the good die young”.

With our deepest sympathy,

“ I met Cory through his amazing wife Ellen whom I worked with for several years. She always spoke about the godly Example he was and just how incredibly their love story evolved. I met Cory several times at Taco Casa and other events for work. He had such a peace about him and a smile that could truly warm the atmosphere around you. I know how much Cory loved his wife and her love for Him was written on her face daily and how much she talked about him! Such a wonderful man, husband and father. The world is truly a much richer place have had such an amazing soul that touch so many lives. I know Ellen and their son will carry his legacy and the love of Christ he sowed in so many will continue forever blessing each and every soul he touched and more!

“ Cory always had a smile on his face. Or if not a smile, it certainly was pleasant. I enjoyed each time I saw him. He was so familiar with me at the workplace that he already had my order in and all I had to do was pay. Didn't even have to tell him what I wanted. He will be missed in the earthly kingdom, but how much more he will be greeted in his heavenly kingdom to meet his savior face to face.

“ This isn't supposed to happen - Cory had so much to give, not to mention a beautiful family and so many around him obviously who loved him. I was shocked to hear this tonight from my wife, who found out about it on Tanner Bell's Facebook page. We were outsiders - just casual friends who have been coming in to Taco Casa for probably 25 years or more. I always found Cory to be positive and one who obviously loved life. I too know Jesus and I regret that we never had time to get to know him on a spiritual level. One day I will have that time because the Bible is provably and indisputably true; therefore it's promises are true, and I can hang on those promises - this life is but a vapor. Wonderful unimaginable things are coming for those who are truly children of God. We lost our 34-year old son to a drug overdose (he loved Taco Casa) 2 years ago now and we truly can feel the immense sorrow and perhaps even some guilt. I held my son's lifeless body and tried to revive him, but it was not to be. These are holes that only God's grace can fill. God bless you all - His grace will carry you through Ellen. From what I can tell, Cory was the real deal... genuine... how rare that is nowadays.

“ One Wednesday evening after a long day at work and hurrying to church to meet my family, I stopped by Taco Casa for a quick meal only to find at the register that I had no cash. Cory wouldn't let me leave without a meal and insisted I let him treat me! What a Christ-like testimony. May the Lord give us all a heart like that.
