“ Cindy was a wonderful high school friend, fellow band member, Class of '84 at Blue Ridge High. We totally lost touch and I am so sad to hear that we will never get that chance again. Ed and Mike, it's been 30 years since we've spoke. But I have such great memories of you both and I wish you peace through this difficult time

“ To Steve and all of Cynthia's family and loved ones. Much love and prayers as our hearts are broken and share in your loss. Cynthia was one in a million, a true example to all Christian women. She was the most loving, humble, kind and, well, to sum it up she exemplified the fruits of the Spirit. She will be missed by all until we meet again in the kingdom.

“ Dear Steve, My heart is broken, as I certainly know yours is. Cindy was the kindest, sweetest, most humble person I honestly think I've ever known. There are many talks over the years where we've laughed and cried together but some of my fondest is when just she and I would meet to hang out and visit together before joining other friends for a Play and then she and I would sit on the bench afterward and talk for another two hours or longer till dark! I will never forget her kindness and how she would buy my kids and I feast gifts and how faithful she was and concerned that she was serving and honoring God in everything! She has most definitely earned her crown and I look forward too seeing her in the soon coming Kingdom of God!

“ We first met Cindy when she and Steve were attending services in Asheville. She was a kind, caring lady with a good sense of humor. She and I enjoyed bringing pot luck meals together and I loved hearing stories about Maggie. My heart grieves with yours. Carol Kloster
