“ Cindy was my big sister for my entire life and my heart is saddened by this loss.

She was a giver, not a taker. She loved her family to a fault and did her best to do right by each and every one of them.

She was there for her grandma, her mom and her husband spending their last days giving of herself to take care of them. She was easy to forgive people because she was Cindy and the first one to come when called for help because she was Cindy.

Melissa and Nicole have been a Godsend to her and I hope they know how very much she loved them and all the kiddos.

I will miss her because she's always been my big sister . I will miss her calls and her “ I just called to say I love you.” I will even miss her saying. “ I got a lot going on.” Well. My big sister has a lot going on right now because she's in the middle of a family reunion and no more heartaches for her.

My heart hurts today but her heart will never break again. REST NOW DEAR CINDY.
