“ Dan and I first met at Southfield Christian School. He was a quiet, young man who was eager and willing to serve the Lord. We then met again at Bob Jones University. He was still a quiet, young man now training and still eager to serve the Lord. We recently connected a few years ago on Facebook. He was still eager to serve the Lord despite his long and unexpected road. We shared the paths we'd taken and encouraged one another in our journeys. Though his way in life had been difficult at times, he had a meek spirit and an abiding faith that God was still in control. His story reminded me of Romans 8:28, “We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.” Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter into the joy of your Lord.

“ Dan was truly truly a wonderful man. I had the pleasure of meeting Dan through the Youth Ministry at the Wixom Baptist Church in the mid to late 80's. He was always so good with (us) the children; as I have very fond memories of my times with him. Dan was a man of god and taught me allot. Dan always had a smile on his face and was a pleasure to be around.

I'm glad I got to reconnect with Dan over facebook this last year and am glad I got to tell him what he meant to me. Dan was a kind sweet caring soul. He wasn't just a wonderful man, he was a great man. I have no doubt he is in Paradise now, and our Lord is very well please. I'm a better man for knowing Dan! God Bless him as I send my deepest heartfelt condolences to his family.

“ Pastor Dan was a generous man, I remember when he was at South Baptist Church in Bay City MI. He loved playing the trumpet and using music to minister the gospel of Jesus Christ. Pastor Dan is the one that led me to Christ and being baptized. You will be missed down here on earth but your legacy will live on into we meet again.

“ There is so much I could say about my Dad, all I really need to share is his life verse. It explains how he lived his life.
Philippians 1:20-21
For I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether I live or die. For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better.
