“ I'VE KNOWN DANNY SINCE THE MID 90'S WHEN HE AND I WORKED TOGETHER AT AMERICAN WOODWORKS, DANNY WAS THE ONLY PERSON I'VE EVER MET THAT WAS MORE COMMITTED TO WORK THAN I WAS, YOU COULD ALWAYS DEPEND ON DANNY. DANNY WAS STRAIGHT UP, HE NEVER TOLD A LIE AND NEVER CHEATED OR TOOK ADVANTAGE OF ANYONE. WE SHARED A LOT OF THE SAME HOBBIES AND INTEREST, DANNY'S PASSING WILL LEAVE HUGE VOID IN MY LIFE, WHEN I SAY HE WAS MY FREIND I MEAN HE WAS MY TRUE FREIND.

I'LL MISS YOU BROTHER, MAY GOD KEEP YOU IN HIS LOVING ARMS .

Thank you Mike ❤️❤️❤️ I know you both shared a lot of memories together. I wish I could bring him back myself, or I wish Heaven had a phone to call him. It seems strange being at home without him, but at times I still feel like he is here. Thank you for being such a great friend to Danny. There is a huge hole in my heart, I will miss him forever or at least until I can go home to be with him. God bless you Mike ❤️

“ Randy, I am really sorry about the passing of Danny. Out of all the cousins I was closest to you and Danny, being that we lived across the street. We had some really fun times together and I always will cherish the memories. Take comfort in knowing that Danny will be with your Mama and Daddy, Grandma, Grandpa, my Mom (Ann) and Jo and Karen. I am sure they are having a big party for Danny. Lots of love and prayers.
