“ It is so fitting that Dawn's last name was Ray, because she was a bright ray of sunshine, so talented and interesting that everyone she met wanted to bathe in her light. I met Dawn when I was only 10 years old and she changed my life forever just by being part of it. I am lucky to have known her and to have experienced just how amazing she was. I choose to see her forever dressed as Cyndi Lauper, in a candid shot I snapped of her when we were at her house getting ready for a Halloween costume party back in 1984. She was so creative and witty and loving and special...my heart is broken and will forever have a space in it for her. I can't even imagine the pain her family feels. My love goes out to Roy, Pat, Russell, Milo and Alex.

“ We haven't lived on Bald Head since 2014, but my memories of Dawn are strong. She had a beautiful light inside that was calming and peaceful. She was such an incredible employee at the Bald Head Island Club, so intelligent, resourceful, a people person and a problem solver. It is such a shock to learn of the death of one so young. To her family and her beautiful sons, her light may be extinguished here on earth, but she will always be shining her light down upon you from Heaven and watching over you all with love. Rest in peace Dawn.

“ Dawn and I worked together on Bald Head Island and, until this school year, our kids also went to school together. Over the last year or so we discovered that we had a lot in common as women and as mothers and developed a friendship outside of work. Her comforting smile and calm demeanor was always welcomed at the end of a hard week. She was a special person and will be missed by many.

“ I've had the pleasure of working with Dawn since she started at the club. She was always fun to be around. She had a sweet disposition and a caring soul. My sincerest sympathy to her boys and her family. We don't know how much time we each have on this earth, so please be happy and lighthearted every day. God takes care of the rest.

Warmly, Andrea Almony

“ My heart has been broken to hear of the loss of you. You were a bright, beautiful and funny lady. You made a difference in my life during our teenage years and beyond. It was a blessing to know you and my prayers are for your family and loved ones, especially your 2 beautiful sons. This has been a tremendous shock and I cannot even fathom the pain they are feeling. I will always keep them in my prayers. So long for now my dear friend.
