“ Martha, Wendell, and Travis

Words cannot express the sorrow we feel for you all. Please know that we loved Deb so much. She was a wonderful person who was so unique, so full of life and a blessing to others. Thank you for sharing her with so many, especially with children. We know that she was a private person, who loved being behind the scenes but never hesitated in sharing her love of our Savior. We also appreciate your wonderful example of steadfast love and pray that your strength will become stronger in the days ahead. Although we know that God supplies our needs, please know that we will always keep you in our thoughts and prayers. Please never hesitate to ask us for help in your times of need.###imported-begin##Fay and Earl Whittington and Roy Hodgens###imported-end##

“ We are sorry for the passing of Debbie. We remember her most for her dedication to her Sunday School kids. Only God knows how many young lives were changed through her Christian faith and teaching. We regret that we will not be able to attend her services today. However, please know that you will all be in our thoughts and prayers today, and in the future. May God give you His peace that truly does pass all understanding.##imported-begin##Robert andTeresa Styles, Kevin and Millie Styles, Jason and Kim Styles Beaty##imported-end##

“ To Wendell, Travis and Martha: Debbie was loved so much. I will miss her dearly. We have shared a lot the past couple of years. Our friendship was truly a blessing from God. Your family's strength is admired by all of us. My thoughts and prayers are with and your family. Debbie was blessed to have such a loving and caring family. Debbie was so brave and I never heard her complain about being sick. She is truly an ANGEL and she loved KKD.##imported-begin##Sherry McAlister##imported-end##
