“ *Dee,
I can't believe that I won't hear your familiar, gravelly voice on my phone. What a wonderful neighbor and friend you were to me. I will forever see you coming down the hill on your tractor to work tirelessly and lovingly on your large garden every year. We talked a lot. Me, hanging on my gate and you sitting on your tractor, mower or truck. I loved your South Carolina accent, your humor, your view of life and your stories. You loved your family, especially your grandchildren. You missed and mourned the loss of your wife Rosie. You were generous with your time, advice, tools and the bounty of your garden. We had different opinions on lots of things, but you embraced and listened to my Florida, flatlander's ideas. The last thing you shared with me when you had gotten some good news on your latest scans was that as soon as you felt better, you were going to chase women again! I wish you had gotten that time.
Rest in peace, my friend!
You deserve it!
It will not be the same without you in the house, on the hill, above us!
Love,
your neighbor
