“ Noah and The Goddard Families, We are saddened to hear about your dad's passing and there's not much of anything that we could say to make it better. Find comfort in knowing that he's gone to a heavenly home, where mercy and grace was given to your loved one. Hold onto your precious memories and he too will live on through you. We are here for you and let us know how we can support you during this difficult time. Praying for you and your family to feel Gods presence and lean on our friendship so we can be there for you.
