“Mary and I send our sympathies to Charlene and Mark, to Hannah, and to Larry. The Lord gave us a special privilege in knowing the lady we always knew as Mrs. Killian. We pay tribute to the memory of her steadfast faith and her resolve always to take her stand with Christ.

“I remember quite a few years ago that our FFPC group of carolers used to go to the Killian home to sing Christmas carols. We generally went there last, partly because it was farther away than most of the homes, but mostly because Mrs. Killian would always have hot chocolate and cookies for us. We had the best time with Mrs. Killian, because she was always so friendly and positive. The love of Christ radiated from her smile and eyes.
