

Destinee Faye Cook

October 15, 2002 - May 15, 2020

Destinee Faye Cook, 17, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Friday, May 15, 2020 at Greenville Memorial Hospital.

Born in Greenville, SC, she was a daughter of Raymond Benjamin “Benji” Cook, Jr. and Sherry Elaine Mills Cook. When Destinee was born we knew at that moment God, had a special purpose on earth for her. Medical trials did not start until she was 3 months old. She fought every day until the Lord called her home. You could see the spirit of the Lord in her eyes, and her smile was contagious no matter how she felt and that smile would light up any room she was in.

We would like to thank all the doctors, nurses and medical staff that have taken care of her in her 17 years. She is no longer wheelchair bound and is running around in Heaven.

Surviving in addition to her parents, is her brother, Caleb Benjamin Cook; her sisters, Mikala Elaine Robinson and Sydney Rae Cook (Jordan); a niece, Presleigh; 2 nephews, Bentley and Ryker; her paternal grandmother, Phyllis Cook; her maternal grandmother, Deborah DePalma (Tony); her maternal step-grandmother, Judy Mills and many loving aunts, uncles and cousins. She was predeceased by her paternal grandfather, Raymond Benjamin Cook, Sr. and her maternal grandfather, Gilbert Charles Mills.

Funeral services will be held at 11 am, Saturday, May 23rd at Woodside Church of God with burial to follow in Mountain View Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends from 6 until 8 PM Friday evening, May 22nd at The Howze Mortuary.

The family will be at the home of Destinee's maternal grandmother Deborah DePalma.

“ I am so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful baby girl. My mom Phyllis Jones and I Jennifer Jones volunteered at Easley Baptist Hospital on Friday mornings and we enjoyed working with your mom. When I read your mom's post about her granddaughter was sick and was being took to the hospital. It broke my heart. I immediately starting praying for her and your whole family. and then when I got back online later to see if their were anymore new updates I was in complete shock to have read that she was with Jesus. Please know that you and all of your family are in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Love and prayers,

“ I have known Sherry since high school as we were best friends for a good while. I've known Destinee she she was just a baby and she visited often Pediatric Specialties where I worked at the time. She had such a sweet sweet spirit about here and I can honestly say that she did light up the room with her beautiful smile! You could always tell that she was content and happy and oh so loved!!!! It's hard to find the words at a time like this, I know from personal experience. I can say with certainty that Destinee lives a life of innocence and joy and pure love which none of us here can say that we have. I firmly believe that the Lord has a plan and a purpose for all of his children and his plan is always perfect! Sherry and Benji you are truly blessed to have been given the precious gift of Destinee and you both are amazing people to have dedicated your entire lives to your precious daughter!

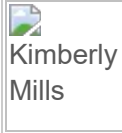

The Bible tells us "to absent from the body is to be present with the Lord"

Destinee is at peace with no more sickness, pain or sadness and please always love on the promise that we will all be reunited in Heaven one day! Soon and very soon we are going to see the King!!! Sorrow may last for the evening but joy comes in the morning!

Thank you Jesus for your mercy and your grace and may you wrap your arms around Sherry, Benji and the entire family and fill them with a peace that only you can!

“ Destinee, I hope Maddy was there to greet you when you arrived in heaven! I'm sure you are both giddy with excitement with your new bodies and all that you are now able to do! I cannot wait for the day to see you two with my own eyes! Until then, we will have to be content with the pictures and videos we have of your ever-smiling faces. In the meantime, please tell Jesus to look after your parents and loved ones as they navigate life in your absence.
