Dewey Zane Hollifield Travelers Rest, South Carolina

Dewey Zane Hollifield, 82, of Travelers Rest passed away on Friday, October 18, 2024, after a decline illness.

Zane was born in Asheville, North Carolina, the son of the late James Elijah Hollifield and the late Bertha Mae Hollifield. He was also preceded in death by his four brothers: Leonard Hollifield, Richard Hollifield, Lawrence Hollifield, and Kenneth Hollifield; a sister: Margaret Hollifield.

Zane was a retired diesel mechanic from R&L Carriers, previously employed with Peterbilt of Greenville and owner of Carolina Diesel Service. He was a dedicated father and grandpaw, a devoted husband for 62 years, and a devoted friend. He was known to talk low, talk slow and not say much. But what he said had “substance”.

The family will receive friends between the hours of 1:00 – 1:45 PM on Friday, October 25, 2024, at The Howze Mortuary. The funeral service to honor Zane’s life will be held at 2:00 PM Friday, October 25, 2024, in The Howze Mortuary Chapel. Zane was known as Bobby's best friend. They worked together for years and his wife was like a sister to me. But we'll meet again in Heaven and talk it all over again. Thank you both for all the good memories. Love you both and the family. Joanie

“ There's not enough space to cover the memories with Zane and Judy and family. Zane and Bobby were like brothers in so many ways and Judy was my truest friend. I just didn't know until today about Zane. My heart is breaking because I wasn't there for her. Judy I can't find a number for you but if you will call Mom at 828-274-7707 she'll give you my new number at the Nursing Home. I love you and those girls and would love to see their children. Again I wish I could be there with you.

“ Scarlet and I were best friends starting in middle school back in the 70s. I fondly remember the first time I visited her house and met her dad, Zane. As a seventh grader, I found him intimidating at first glance, but within minutes, he asked me where I lived and how long Scarlet and I had known each other. He was so soft-spoken and kind-hearted, always joking whenever I came around. He was the kind of man anyone would want as a husband, dad, grandpa, great-grandpa.

I am deeply sorry for your loss, and my thoughts and prayers will be with your family in the days and weeks to come. God bless you family.

*With love,

“ Zane was a hero to me. He was an amazing husband, father and grandfather. The kind you read about but rarely find. He set the bar high for the rest of us on being a good person. I have always loved him and thought highly of him because he was always kind to everyone. He will be sorely missed. Praying for his family and friends
