“ Don was a strong man and kind. I will never forget him coming across the street and bringing my parents flag to half mast when my father died. My dad knew what a good man Don was and always enjoyed time with Don. These past years even when his health was failing, Don's strength was there when my mom needed it. I will miss his wave when I go by the house. At his service Jimmy said that Don is not lost we know exactly where he is, and while there is great comfort in knowing he is with the Father, he will always be missed here.

“ Don was a good and caring neighbor. We will miss him greatly! Without the brave effort of men like Don who served their country we would not "stand so boldly, shine so brightly and live so freely." We are grateful for his years of service. He stood tall in stature and also tall in life and example! And while we will miss him, we are grateful that brave, strong men like Don lived! He is breathing celestial air now, treading Heaven's streets in easy gait. When 'our' name is called he will be there to greet us. Thank you Don for watching over those of us who had lost our spouse. I will miss his neighborly wave :) Sadly missed but fondly remembered.
