“ Vivian and Peggy,
I am so sorry about Dora Lou's passing. But I am thankful to God for taking her home to heaven and relieving her of her suffering and pain. Praise Him! It's so hard to say goodbye to your Mother and you're never ready to give her up, no matter what. But we all know in our hearts that she has a "brand new body" that will never wear out or grow old for an eternity! Amen!

She will always be my "Big Sister". And I will never forget all the great memories we've made and the good and bad times we've shared. I love her still and miss her terribly. As I know you do, and so many others that were privileged to know and love her.

With Deepest Sympathy and heartfelt condolences,
Debbie Lee
