“ I remember stopping by Aunt Doris's and Uncle Frank's house sometimes after church on Sundays. She may have been small in stature, but she was spunky and had a quick wit. I guess she had to be that way growing up with her brothers. She was always dressed to a T and super smart and just a precious soul. I know that she is in heaven right now trying to whip Uncle Frank in shape. I hate I cannot attend the service...she was so LOVED.

“ Dearest Betty & Family

Thank You for Your Care for Doris throughout the years. She loved and appreciated her family her entire life.

She was a special person and touched many lives including mine.

She was a Faithful and Caring Christian lady. We enjoyed many fun times in earlier days, even chaperoning a beach trip for Acteens.

She enjoyed the Theatre and Her Work. But She was Most Devoted to Her Lord, Church and Her Family, as a Loving Wife, Daughter, Sister, and Aunt.

She must surely be at Peace, now that she is “Home “ with those she so dearly missed.

Love, Linda
