“ I called her my friend as well as one of my dear Seniors at Senior Action. She was always there, waiting, when I arrived, Ready to get started with the morning activities. We talked and walked, just enjoying the warm days. I will miss her so much. She won't be there this morning, but I know where she is!!! Praise God! She's walking in heaven this morning, with the Lord, instead of walking with me and Zac in Slater SC!

“ To one of the strongest women..I will ever know. To all our split meals at Slater..our shopping trips to Hamricks. All the Christmas spend at granny Turners..my 1st training bra..my 1st barbie these are precious memories I will always hold close. 50 years of birthday calls..always rememberin my kids bdays.. Our endless cups of coffee. Wishing things were different at the end. But some of my best memories I will always hold close. Rest in Peace until we all meet again.
